Philips Sport Vereniging (English: Philips Sports Union), widely known either as PSV or PSV Eindhoven, is a Dutch sports club from Eindhoven, Netherlands. It is best known for its professional football department. PSV is one of three European Cup winning football clubs in the Netherlands, the other two being AFC Ajax Amsterdam, their arch rivals, and Feyenoord Rotterdam. The club won the European Cup in 1988 (against Benfica) - making them the second Dutch club after Ajax to win The Treble - and the UEFA Cup in 1978 (against SC Bastia). They are often nicknamed Boeren (Dutch for farmers/peasants) in reference to their original provincial city origins. PSV have won the national league 21 times.
